VariSource iX Afterloader and Applicators

Duration
Dependent on the system configuration (stand alone or ARIA integrated) and applicator delivery – up to 2.5 days.

Target audience
Medical physicists, Radiation Therapists, Radio-Oncologists and Nurses who are involved in the HDR Brachytherapy treatment preparation and delivery. Recommended Group size: Up to 8 people.

Prerequisites
Users should have working knowledge of Brachytherapy terminology, applicators and treatment techniques.

Aim
To provide training and support for the VariSource iX afterloader, treatment delivery console and applicators, including quality assurance and emergency procedures.

Program
- Afterloader components and functions.
- Control console operations.
- Emergency procedures.
- Quality assurance and source calibration.
- Applicator training.

For further information please contact your local office.

EMEIA Course Information can be found on www.varian.com/emea-trainings